This month is all about social networks.

Social Media

In today's society, the use of social media has become a necessary daily activity. Social media is typically used for social interaction and access to news and information and decision making. People can use it worldwide, as well as to share, create, and spread information.

The importance of social media cannot be ignored since it plays a very big and crucial role in our lives today... It also helps you connect with friends, relatives and helps you make new friends as well.

There are numerous websites and apps that make it possible (such as Instagram, Snapchat, Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, Viber and so on). Social media is now becoming one of the largest means of communication and is gaining popularity rapidly.

We live in a time and age where information is just a button press away. We are swayed by information all around us. We millennials want to know, read, understand and then speak our minds about it. That is where social media comes into play. It is really one of the biggest elements that we live with and cannot ignore it.

But many psychiatrists believe that social media is a single most factor causing depression and anxiety in people, mostly teenagers. It's also a cause of poor mental growth in children. Increased use of social media can lead to poor sleeping patterns. There are many other negative effects like cyber bullying, body image issues, using fake profiles, etc. as well. There's an increased 'Fear of Missing Out' (FOMO) at an all-time high youth because of social media.

What's also increased is the case of catfishing. Catfishing is the type of activity where a person creates a sockpuppet social networking presence or fake identitiy on a social network account, usually targeting a specific victim for abuse, deception or fraud. It's also employed for romance scams on dating websites. It's really sad when you get to see what people on the other side of the screen can do to ruin somebodys life. What's really bad about it that people wouldn't stop doing that no matter what. Catfishing someone can take days, months, years even a decade. People ruin each other's lives just because they "think it's funny".

Today, it is important how many followers you've got, how many likes you get on your photos, how you "influence" other people. People get famous by having thousands of likes,

I honestly think using social media a lot can mess up someone's social life, one can close up into themselves and that can be a serious problem. Hopefully, we can stop using social media as often. People would change a lot because of that, for the better ofcourse.

How I use social networks

I'm 17 so it's normal for me to use social media. And I use them quite a bit but I can't say that they had any influence on me mainly because I don't let them get to me. I just have a weird opinion about social media and people on them so I use it as a "defense mechanism". People on Instagram and social media such as Instagram show parts of their perfect days, their perfect mansions with pools and 30 different cars. It's an infuencer thing as some would say, but others like me consider this to be stupid and pointless.

Something else I can talk about is how I use social medias. The 2 socials networks I use the most are YouTube and Instagram (and I know some of you don't consider YouTube a social media but I do and I'll reffer to it like that). I even use YouTube more than Instagram and video games. Now what do I use it for? Literally, I watch everything on there. From gaming videos, to some serious talk videos, to even some documentaries, to vine compilations and cute animal videos. And when we talk about Instagram I usually use it to view memes (pictures with a photo and a funny caption above them) or I just post things I find funny on my profile.

Now how have I dealt with all the pressure of being perfect on social media? Easily, I realised I wasn't perfect. I didn't edit my photos so much that you can't recognize me even though I have just a few of them. I realised embracing yourself especially on social media gives you an advantage. You are aware of who you are and if you can deal with that and make somebody's day by being yourself or making yourself look funny. That's a power not known to many.

So you might call me below the average social media user but I'm honestly glad it's that way as I don't think I should be obssesed with those.

I'm so tired of love songs, tired of love songs

Tired of love songs, tired of love
Just wanna go home, wanna go home
Wanna go home, whoa
So tired of love songs, tired of love songs
Tired of love songs, tired of love
Just wanna go home, wanna go home

Wanna go home, whoa

Party

Trying my best to meet somebody
But everybody around me's fallin' in love to our song
I, I, oh I, yeah
Hate it
Taking the shot 'cause I can't take it

Taking the shot 'cause I can't take it
But I don't think they make anything that strong
So I hold on

So I hold on I, I, oh I, yeah

Strangers, killing my lonely nights with strangers

And when they leave, I go back to our song, I hold on

I, I, oh I

Hurts like heaven, lost in the sound Buzz cut season like you're still around Can't unmiss you and I need you now Yeah, I, I, oh I, yeah Tako sam umoran od ljubavnih pjesama, umoran od ljubavnih pjesama Umoran on pjesama, umoran od ljubavi Samo želim kući, želim kući whoa Tako sam umoran od ljubavnih pjesama, umoran od ljubavnih pjesama Umoran on pjesama, umoran od ljubavi Samo želim kući, želim kući whoa

Žurka
Pokušavam upoznati nekoga
Ali svi oko nas zaljubljuju se uz našu pjesmu
Ja, oh ja
Mrzim je
Pijem jer ne mogu da izdržim
Ali ne mislim da postoji tako jako piće
Pa se držim
Ja, ja oh ja

Stranci, ubijam usamljenje noći sa strancima A kada odu, vraćam se našoj pjesmi, držim se Ja, ja oh ja Boli kao raj, izgubljen u zvuku Onaj dio godine kad svi raskidaju, a ti kao da si još uvijek tu Ne mogu da mi ne fališ I trebaš mi sada Da ja, ja oh ja

For some reason, teenagers seem to like this song!
